TRINITY TO BUILD $50,000 EDIFICE

Presbyterian Congregation to Erect New Structure to be Named "Sunnyside."

A new $50,000 church to be known as Sunnyside Presbyterian to take the place of the present Trinity Presbyterian edifice, is to be erected at the southwest corner of Washington and Francis sts., according to plans that were made at a meeting of the congregation of Trinity Presbyterian church Wednesday night. The pastor's residence is to be built on the same lot with the new church.

J. P. Whiteman, D. D. Munro, Mrs. J. C. Vermande, Miss Pearl Rock and Dr. William M. Cook were appointed on a committee to take charge of raising the funds for building the new church. The church, manse and property, located at the corner of Colfax av. and St. Peter st., will be sold and the proceeds used to erect the new building.

Plans for the church are now being drawn by Sidney R. Beasley of Cleveland. Three floor plans and two elevations were shown to the congregation at Wednesday night's meeting by means of a stereopticon. Mr. Badley drew the plans for the first M. E. st. Paul's M. E. and Epworth Memorial churches of this city and the first M. E. of First Presbyterian churches of Mishawaka.

The first church was erected on the present site 59 years ago. In 1876 the church was organized and called the Second Presbyterian. In 1885 an addition was made to the original frame structure. The present church was dedicated on Sept. 23, 1894. It is planned to have the new church ready for dedication within three years.

PIGEONS UNRESTRAINED

Stephen F. Brown in City Court For Letting Fowls Run Loose.

"Pigeons should not be kept in a civilized community," Judge Warner told Stephen F. Brown, 621 N. Lafayette st., in city court Thursday morning. Brown is charged with permitting the pigeons to run at large, the complaining witness being Flora E. McClure, a next door neighbor. City Atty. Eli F. Seebirt and Atty. Joseph Wypisizinski argued the point of whether or not a pigeon is a domestic fowl, Wypisizinski contending that it is not. Judge Warner continued the case until Friday morning, requesting the defendant's attorney to produce some law upon the subject.

It was alleged that Brown refused to keep his pigeons caged up and allowed them to over run the property adjoining his home. City Atty. Seebirt said he had warned Brown but that the man replied that there was no law to compel him to keep the birds confined.

FATHER LEAVES COURT PLEADED WITH RESULTS

Clarence Palmer Is Given Chance to Support His Family and Make Good With Judge.

Clarence Palmer, 513 N. 11th st., River Park, was a broad and happy smile on his face as he walked out of the city court room Thursday morning bearing in his arms his five month old babe and followed by his wife and two other children. Palmer had been charged with non-support by his wife but Judge Warner gave the man two weeks in which to show he was in good faith in promising to care for his family of six children.

Mrs. Palmer told the court that her husband has been drinking heavily and has not been working steadily. She said that he owes part of a grocery bill and $17 on the house rent. It was also asserted that Palmer was spending the majority of his money for liquor. Palmer admitted the latter charge but declared that he was one of the machinists who went on a strike at the Studebaker plant who had been "blacklisted." He asserted that he was taken back at Studebaker at the end of the strike but discharged a few days later and now whenever he gets a job it is "tipped off" to his employers that he was one of the strikers and he is discharged.

Judge Warner told Palmer to get a job which the man promised to do. When the case was ordered continued for two weeks and Palmer permitted to go free, he walked over to his wife who was holding their youngest child, clasped his hands in front of the baby, spoke in endearing words and clasped the tot in his arms. He then left the court room carrying the child while his wife and two other children followed, all smiling happily while a titter of amusement ran through the crowd of spectators.

intention of assailing the Cincinnati body for bringing up this issue. In his annual address to the general assembly today the retiring moderator, Rev. J. Ross Stevenson of Princeton, N. J., deplored the world war and made stirring pleas for church unity. He also criticized present lay conditions in America, asserting that religion was losing ground in the scramble for gold that has marked the prosperity wave.

Dr. Stevenson denounced the struggle in Europe as "un-Christian" and declared that it was waged for the love of milk alone.

During the forenoon the candidacy of Dr. Hugh Kelso Walker of California and Dr. George L. Robinson for moderator, was announced. This puts five men in the field.

The matters upon which the assembly will take action are the divorce evil and Sabbath desecration. It is declared that the divorce evil has increased in the past 50 years from one divorce in every thousand inhabitants to one in every twelve.

"Why," said Langhorne, "where are the bandits?"

"They left us here in guard of the ranchman," replied Deemer, "and when they left about four hours ago, they told him they would come back and would kill him if he had escaped."

That's the story of the rescue of Deemer. Six hours later and the bandits would have returned. And then—

"Well," said Deemer philosophically, "I guess they'd have taken us into the mountains and you'd never have got us."

In a long range engagement near Cerro Blanco, the following day, Lieut. Cramer with a detachment of 20 men, captured one of the bandits and thinks he wounded several others.

The main body of bandits is today reported at San Santley, 30 miles from here. Maj. Langhorne, without rations or forage, is pushing on. Col. Stibley with two troops of the 14th cavalry, is reported at Rancho Manuel Sanchez.

Scarcity of vessels is seriously hindering American manufacturers in their efforts to get logwood supplies, department of commerce officials say. Piers at Santo Domingo are reported piled high with shipments. The heavy American demand has forced prices up 100 per cent, and freight rates to New York have increased several hundred per cent. A solid stand of 25,000 acres of logwood has just been discovered in Honduras and soon will be put on the market, the department has learned. Another newly discovered supply is reported from Matanzas province, Cuba.

PLAN EXHIBITS FOR BABY WEEK

Welfare Exhibition, Food Shows and "Perfect Baby" Examinations, Features.

Baby Welfare exhibits which formed an important part of the exhibition prepared for the great national conference of charities and corrections held this week in Indianapolis, will be a feature of the exhibit to be held in South Bend during Baby Week, May 21 to 28. Announcement to that effect was made Thursday afternoon by Mrs. P. L. Sims at a meeting of the Baby Week executive committee held in the office of Dr. C. S. Rosenbury. This splendid exhibit will be set up in the Studebaker building at 1303 W. Washington av., along with a special infant welfare display from Indiana university and a pure food exhibit to be prepared by the domestic science department of the public schools under the direction of Miss Florence Weld.

In the store room beside the baby conferences will be held for determining the most perfect baby in South Bend between the ages of three months and two years. These conferences will be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, from 10 o'clock in the morning until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The room will be divided into two parts by means of a glass partition so that the mothers and interested visitors may see the examination through-out. Volunteer physicians and nurses and a committee of young women will have charge of the examination and each child will be scored on a standardized score card. The physical tests will be made by physicians and the mental tests under the direction of Miss Grace Babblitt, a teacher in the public schools.

All the merchants of the city and even druggists and grocers are co-operating with the Baby Week committee in the preparation of window exhibits, which in some cases will be displays of the proper clothing for infants, and in others of the proper food.

A large committee will be busy all day Friday and Saturday distributing among the 1,800 babies born in South Bend between May 1, 1915, and May 1, 1916, and registered in the board of health office, the pretty blue and white Baby Week pennants bearing the slogan, "Better Babies, Better South Bend."

On Sunday the pastors of all of the churches will preach appropriate sermons. Monday has been set aside as Fathers' day, Tuesday as Mothers' day and Wednesday as Brothers' and Sisters' day.

FORD PEACE PARTY IS REORGANIZED IN SWEDEN

Representatives of United States, Switzerland, Holland Denmark, Norway and Sweden.

STOCKHOLM, May 17. (via London, May 18).—What once was the Ford peace expedition today was formally reorganized as the neutral conference for continuous mediation with the delegates from six neutral countries—the United States, Switzerland, Holland, Denmark, Norway and Sweden.

Although still generously supported by Henry Ford, a manifesto issued today says the conference must not be confused with the original expedition. Only the Rev. Dr. Charles F. Aked of the original party which sailed from the United States, is now a delegate, but Louis P. Lochner still is the general secretary. Miss Emily Greene Balch of Wesley college now is the second American delegate, and Frederick Holt of Detroit is acting as business administrator for Mr. Ford. The delegates from the other neutral countries were chosen by votes of various peace organizations and are quite prominent.

With the new organization's new ideas and a more practical basis for work, the conference hopes to effect the earlier trials and tribulations of the Ford peace party, and through a publicity propaganda keep the peace issue alive in Europe, with the ultimate hope that neutral nations will act in concert in offering mediation.

The consuls are to confer as soon as they all arrive at El Paso and are first to compile their information into one report, which will then be given to the army leaders.

They are to remain in conference so long as the army leaders deem necessary to get at the truth as to the conditions.
